East Dunbartonshire Bikeability Scotland Coordinator

Alan Smith

Job title: Outdoor Education and Awards Officer

Contact: alan.smith@eastdunbarton.gov.uk

Alan has worked for East Dunbartonshire Council since 2012 and has coordinated Bikeability Scotland since 2016. Having been involved in outdoor activities for the last 27 years, he really enjoys watching the continuing development of the Bikeability Scotland programme within the authority.

Earliest memory of cycling?

Learning to cycle with all my pals from school.

What would you say to a school thinking about participating in Bikeability Scotland?

Do it. Great to see young people develop and learning to ride their bikes with confidence especially when on the road.

Best Bikeability Scotland moment?

Having nearly all schools in the authority signed up for Level 2.

Most likely to be heard saying....

Stop skidding!
