Grant has been a Bikeability Scotland coordinator at Dundee City Council for over two years and continues to strive for 100% delivery of cycle training to all primary schools.

Earliest memory of cycling?

Being four years old and cycling around the village with my big brothers.

What would you say to a school thinking about participating in Bikeability Scotland?

This is an important life skill that every child should have the opportunity to take part in. To have the skills to ride safely on the roads not only saves lives but makes the entire experience more enjoyable and hopefully get more kids riding to school.

Best Bikeability Scotland moment?

Working with a school to deliver training to over 200 pupils. The best part was getting every child through their Bikeability Scotland Level 2 on road training.

Most likely to be heard saying....

Brakes. Remember where they are. Control is key.
