Earliest memory of cycling?

My dad holding the saddle of my bike, letting go and finally being able to cycle on my own. What a day!

What would you say to a school thinking about participating in Bikeability Scotland?

Being able to ride safely on the road is a great life skill, especially as more and more adults are choosing cycling as a mode of sustainable transport. It is also an excellent practical way to teach road safety in a real-life environment.

Best Bikeability Scotland moment?

The smiles on the pupils' faces, and seeing children given the opportunity to excel outside of the classroom.

Most likely to be heard saying....

Remember your 'final look'.
